

CONTENTS

PREFACE

INTRODUCTION

The Origins and History of ‘Balavariani’ and its Place among the Treasures of World Literature

A HYMN TO THE BLESSED IODASAPH

BALAVARIANI OR THE STORY OF BARLAAM AND JOSAPHAT

BOOK I: The Life of Blessed Iodasaph, Son of Abenes, King of India, whom the Blessed Father and Teacher Balahvar converted

BOOK II: Concerning the Arrival of our Holy and Blessed Father Balahvar, who converted the King’s Son to the Religion of Christ

Fable the First: The Trumpet of Death: The Four Caskets

Fable the Second: The Sower

Fable the Third: The Man and the Elephant

Fable the Forth: The Man and his Three Friends

Fable the Fifth: The King for One Year

Fable the Sixth: Dogs and Carrion

Fable the Seventh: Physician and Patient

Fable the Eight: The Sun of Wisdom

Fable the Ninth: The King and the Happy Poor Couple

Fable the Tenth: The Rich Youth and the Poor Maiden

Fable the Eleventh: The Fowler and the Nightingale

Fable the Twelfth: The Tame Gazelle

Fable the Thirteenth: The Costume of Enemies

BOOK III: The Life and Ministry of the Blessed Iodasaph, the King’s Son, whom the Holy Father Balahvar converted, and who converted his father King Abenes and the Land of India to the service of Christ

Fable the Fourteenth: The Amorous Wife

Fable the Fifteenth: The Youth who had never seen a Woman

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY AND NOTES FOR FUTHER READING

INDEX